

Chinese Red Cross Foundation Beijing Baci Bilingual School

Cambridge University International Examinations
Accredited School

IMMERSION GLOBAL EDUCATION

Teaching Internship Program in Beijing

(Late August 2010 – Early January 2011)

Application Deadline: Friday 28th May, 2010

This Internship Position is ideal for graduates or students who are:

- considering to pursue a career in Teaching;
- interested in experiencing modern China; or
- currently studying Mandarin and looking for opportunities to improve their language skill.

For interested graduates and students, this program will allow you to explore the culture and history of China as well as learn the Chinese language with little cost. It will also give you overseas working experience before the start of your career, which will look great on your CV and assist you to formulate a better career plan.

The Program includes:

- unique cultural experience with paid tours taking in the Great Wall, Forbidden City and Olympic Venues;
- fully paid for Chinese language course provided by a leading university in Beijing;
- one semester of teaching experience at pre-school and/or primary school level in a leading bilingual school in Beijing;
- all food and accommodation provided while in Beijing, plus some living allowance
- travel allowance for the air ticket (up to $500) available upon request.

Chinese language skill is NOT required.
Assistance on visa application will also be provided.

About the Internship Program

Chinese Red Cross Foundation Beijing Bacui Bilingual School is seeking three enthusiastic graduates and/or students to take part in this internship program from late August 2010 to early January 2011.

The Internship (Associate Teachers) Position:

As interns or associate teachers, you are required to:

- Attend the school on a full-time basis for the period of the internship, i.e. during normal school hours, 5 days a week for the period of the internship;
- Work closely with the supervising Chinese-speaking teacher and undertake a teaching load of around 3- 4 x 40minutes periods per day (which is about 60% of a normal teaching load).
- Participate in all normal aspects of the professional role of a teacher during the internship period, e.g. teaching, staff meetings, school events, playground and sports supervisions (with assigned supervising teacher)

Requirements:

- Applicants must have a tertiary degree or currently studying towards a tertiary degree in any discipline;
- Native speaker of English language;
- Enthusiastic about teaching pre-school and/or primary school children of varying nationalities in Beijing;
- Working experience and qualification in early childhood education and/or primary education is preferred.

Associated Costs & Travel Allowance:

To take the intern position, you only need to arrange and pay for your own return air-ticket (approx. $1000 - $1200) and travel insurance (approx. $200).

Travel allowance (up to $500) is available upon request. please email applications@igedu.org for more information.

How to Apply:

Please email the following documents to applications@igedu.org quoting reference number: KP0103 by Friday 28st May, 2010:

- a short covering letter;
- a copy of your CV;

For any enquiries, please also email: applications@igedu.org

For more information regarding this Program, please visit: <http://www.igedu.org/interns.html>

Chinese Red Cross Foundation Beijing Bacui Bilingual School

- Founded by the Chinese Red Cross Foundation
- One of the most prestigious coeducational independent boarding schools in Beijing
- Accredited Cambridge International Center by the University of Cambridge International Examinations
- Registered Member of Cambridge International Primary Programme (CIPP)
- Registered Testing Center for A-Level

Established in 2003, Chinese Red Cross Foundation Beijing Bacui Bilingual School (Beijing Bacui) is now one of the most prestigious coeducational independent boarding schools in Beijing. The School currently has an enrolment of over 1,300 full-time students, among which over 100 are full-time international students.

The School offers a wide range of English and Chinese based curriculum.

As a Cambridge International Center accredited by the University of Cambridge International Examinations, Beijing Bacui offers the following English-based curriculum:

- Cambridge International Primary Programme (CIPP);
- Cambridge Checkpoint/Lower Secondary Programme;
- International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE);
- A-Level (Advanced/Advanced Subsidiary)

Beijing Bacui also provides Chinese National K-12 Curriculum as well as various Chinese language programs. Recognized as an international leader in providing Chinese language programs to international students at K-12 level, the School is also the official testing center for HSK (Official Chinese Proficiency Test) and YCT (Youth Chinese Learner Test).

Location:

The School is located in the Chaoyang District, and has easy access to public transportations including metros and buses.

Chaoyang District is the new financial CBD of Beijing Municipality. The majority of foreign embassies, the 2008 Olympic Park, as well as many famous restaurant and bar streets are also located in Chaoyang District.

CHINESE RED CROSS FOUNDATION
BEIJING BACUI BILINGUAL SCHOOL
www.bacui.cn

No. 1 Bacui Road, Chaoyang District,
Beijing, CHINA, 100025