Cuernavaca, The City of Eternal Spring

Cuernavaca is the capital and the largest city of the state of Morelos.

The city was nicknamed the "City of Eternal Spring" by Alexander Von Humboldt in the 19th century. It has long been a favorite escape for Mexico City and foreign visitors because of its warm, stable climate and abundant vegetation. Aztec Emperors had summer residences here, and even today many famous people as well as Mexico City residents maintain homes here. Cuernavaca is also host to a large foreign resident population, including large numbers of students who come to study the Spanish language.

Campus Cuernavaca International

Located in the City of Eternal Spring which has an almost constant temperature of 70sF°.

It is at an hour drive from Mexico City and at a three hour drive from the beautiful beaches of Acapulco.

Well known for its multicultural environment.

Personal approach to education and services.

Great tradition in teaching Spanish as a Second Language combined with a specific field project.

2008 PCI Design Award for Best University Facility.

Program Objective

The Cuernavaca International Summer Program is an exciting six- week program for international participants and Campus Cuernavaca students. The program is designed to offer participants the opportunity to experience cultural enrichment through special lectures, group projects, field trips, and cultural activities.

For international participants, this program will be a chance to not only learn Spanish language and gain hands-on experience with Mexican culture, but also earn up to six academic credits. The courses have been designed to offer participants the chance to explore Mexico focusing on their particular interests and form valuable relationships with other students who share similar passions.

Organized Cultural Activities

Cortes Palace, was built on the ruins of a Tlahuica palace called Tlatlocalacalli, at first served as the residence of Hernán Cortés; now it is the Regional museum of Cuernavaca called “Museum Cuauhnahuac” and contains the largest collection of furniture, pictures, murals, archaeological pieces and paintings closely related with Cuernavaca and state of Morelos history.

Robert Brady Museum, contains a unique collection of more than 1300 pieces of furniture, prehispanic figures and paintings from all over the world. The collections were gathered by Robert Brady who was born in Iowa and during his life he travelled tirelessly to increase its collection, which includes important works by Rufino Tamayo, Frida Kahlo, Miguel Covarrubias, Maurice Prendergast, Marsden Hartley and Graham Sutherland.

Municipal Market, experience the colourful and the cultural richness of Cuernavaca’s main market.

The town of Tepoztlan (also named a Magic Town or a Place of Abundant Copper), a popular tourist destination near Cuernavaca. The town is famous for the nearby Tepozteco mountain, as well as for the exotic ice cream flavors prepared by the townspeople. The Tepozteco mountain has been a ceremonial centre for many centuries and it features an extraordinary pyramid at the top. Most recently Tepoztlan has become a centre of the New Age movement and has attracted many artists to live here.

Each participant must pay for his/her transportation and museum entrances.*
