Summer in Stockholm July 9 - August 17, 2012

This summer, join Stockholm University School of Business for our international summer programme. Students from select partner universities are invited to join us in Stockholm, the capital of Scandinavia.

Three courses will be offered tuition-free to invited students from partner universities over a period of six weeks. Students are welcome to register for one or two courses.

July 9 - July 27 €600* Corporate Finance (7.5 ECTS)

The pursuit of the singular goal of shareholder wealth maximization has many interconnected sides. How do corporate executives achieve this goal? This course will examine the tools for understanding corporate value and the effectiveness of management in maximizing that value.

July 30 - August 10 Innovation (5 ECTS)

Innovating involves the creation of ideas that lead to new products, processes, technologies or ideas accepted by markets, governments or society. The course examines the critical and analytical tools to understand the innovation process, the context in which it arises and the various managerial efforts that go into managing it.

€400*
