

Diploma Course in Culture and Development of Mexico

Campus Cuernavaca
May 28 – July 10, 2013

Cuernavaca, The City of Eternal Spring

- Cuernavaca is the capital and the largest city of the state of Morelos.
- The city was nicknamed the "City of Eternal Spring" by Alexander Von Humboldt in the 19th century. It has long been a favorite escape for Mexico City and foreign visitors because of its warm, stable climate and abundant vegetation. Aztec Emperors had summer residences here, and even today many famous people as well as Mexico City residents maintain homes here. Cuernavaca is also host to a large foreign resident population, including large numbers of students who come to study the Spanish language.

Campus Cuernavaca International

- Located in the City of Eternal Spring which has an almost constant temperature of 70sF°.
- It is at an hour drive from Mexico City and at a three hour drive from the beautiful beaches of Acapulco.
- Well known for its multicultural environment.
- Personal approach to education and services.
- Great tradition in teaching Spanish as a Second Language combined with a specific field project.
- 2008 PCI Design Award for Best University Facility.
