

Hong Kong Economic & Trade Office, Sydney
Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

Exchange and Career Opportunities in Hong Kong

Hong Kong

- ✚ Perfect gateway to Mainland China and Asia
- ✚ Base of more than 3,700 regional headquarters and offices of overseas companies
- ✚ Home to some of the world's top 50 universities, including those ranked 3rd, 5th and 6th in Asia in 2014
- ✚ Destination of over 4,400 exchange students

Students who are interested to know more about exchange and career opportunities in Hong Kong are welcome to join the information session.

Date: Wednesday, 10 September 2014

Time: 12:00-1:00pm

Venue: Mathews Theatre D, University of New South Wales (UNSW)

Speakers: Mr Bernard Lo, Deputy Director,
Hong Kong Economic & Trade Office in Sydney
Mr Andrew Fester, Global Education Advisor (Student Exchange),
UNSW

Format: Presentation, Q&A, networking with speakers and former exchange student to Hong Kong, refreshments

Find out more about Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office on

 HK.AU.NZ  and <http://www.hketosydney.gov.hk>

SPEAKER PROFILE

Mr Bernard Lo

Deputy Director, Hong Kong Economic & Trade Office in Sydney

Mr Lo joined the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region as an Administrative Officer in 2005. He was appointed in September 2013 as the Deputy Director of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Sydney, which represents the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region in Australia and New Zealand.

Mr Lo has undertaken wide variety of policy responsibilities through his postings at the Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau, Education Bureau and Home Affairs Bureau. Immediately before his current posting, Mr Lo worked at the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer, overseeing the rewrite of the information and communications technology blueprint of Hong Kong, e-government policies and the Government's open data programme.